

Mr. [REDACTED]

Based on the attached letter, it is our understanding that you are counsel for Representative Clyde, who will be filing suit against the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Acting Sergeant at Arms of the House, and the Acting Chief of the Capital Police. If such an action is filed, as the General Counsel of the House, I will be representing the Speaker and the Acting Sergeant at Arms. I will be joined in that work by my Principal Deputy General Counsel, [REDACTED]. Accordingly, I ask that you communicate on this matter from now on directly with me and [REDACTED].

Are you able to tell us when and where such a suit will be filed, and what the nature of the legal claims will be? Will you be seeking any kind of expedited relief or consideration of the case? And when you do file, I hope that you will email us immediately. We appreciate, in advance, your courtesy in this matter.

All the best --

[REDACTED]
